Bitter Words Were Spoken.

St. Albans, March 25.—The final mosting of creditors of J. H. White & Sons, incorporated, of Boston, was held yesterday before H. Charles Royce referee in bankruptey. The creditors were out in force, some fifty of them principally farmers nearly all of whom had suffered more or less heavily through their dealings with the Whites. The meeting was a lively one and much have talk was indulged in. One of the factions tried to force through the appointment of a commission to go to Boston and investigate the method of living of the Whites and to learn if possible what had become of the stream of cream money which had flowed from Vermont through the White's hands. The report of the trustee was finally accepted, thus closing up toe matter. Danby, March 25.—The S. L. Griffith accepted, thus closing up the matter. A dividend of from six to six and a half cents will be declared.
